Public Safety

A feeling of confidence that you can walk the streets of the city without becoming a victim of violent crime is a goal. Better police and fire protection are needed.

A part of the dilemma is that the city is cutting back on fire and police protection at a time when there is more crime and violent, drug related crime, particularly in the inner city and downtown areas.

Allegheny County District AttorneyBob Colville

Date : 7/4/85 Discussed the no-no's of firecrackers, that they are illegal in Pennsylvania and are dangerous.

West Penn HospitalDr. William Goldfarb

Date : 5/30/88 Burn accidents are to some extent a seasonal phenomenon, and people should be careful with barbecue grills, lawn mowers, etc.

Pittsburgh City CouncilJack Wagner

Date : 4/21/87 Record numbers of city police are retiring or quitting the police force due to their dislike for their leadership

Pittsburgh Bureau of FireJohn R. Leahy Jr.

Date : 10/9/86 Public education on causes of fire is needed in order to combat the problem of children playing with fire. News media should project fireman as friendly.

William Penn ParkingMerrill Stabile

Date : 5/17/90 The city should be the economic hub. Residential area businesses are thriving and the downtown area is desolate at night. Parking is dangerous, more events in town could help the situation.

CouncilwomanMichelle Madoff

Date : 5/6/87 Residents of areas traversed by trains carrying hazardous materials are in danger

District Attorney of Allegheny CountyRobert Colville

Date : 7/3/85 Discussed fireworks safety and that most fireworks are illegal in Allegheny County and even sparklers are illegal in Pittsburgh.

Pennsylvania State PoliceTom Lyon

Date : 7/1/88 Illegal fireworks are dangerous, and with the present drought the hazards are even greater than usual

1985

Do you feel safe in your neighborhood

Do you support the idea of mandatory fitness training for city police officers

Have you ever driven drunk

How should we deal with terrorists

If Pennsylvania passed a mandatory seatbelt law would you obey it, or risk a fine

Should the State implement limits on Happy Hours

Should the government require the installation of air bags in new cars

Should the state police set up sobriety check points, looking for drunk drivers

1986

Are you afraid to go downtown at night

Do we have enough police officers in Pittsburgh

Do you think the Pittsburgh Marathon is an inconvenience

Does the 55 mile an hour speed limit work to save lives? Do you obey the law

Does the Pittsburgh Police Force have an image problem

How do you feel about the effectiveness of the city's river rescue squad

How do you feel about the resuffling of the people in the public safety department

Is your car equipped with enough safety features? Any safety problems

Should paramedics be paid as much as police or firemen

Should police officers be disciplined if guilty of brutality

What's your opinion on the leadership in the Pittsburgh Safety Department

When a patient's drug problem threatens public safety, should doctors sidestep confidentiality rules and tell authorities

1987

Are you pleased with the police response time in your community

Does it bother you that hazardous chemicals are transported through the area on a regular basis

Governor Bob Casey says that as long as he's Governor, the speed limit in Pennsylvania will stay at 55, even though the Congress passed a highway bill that allows each state to raise the limit to 65 on rural interstates. How do you feel about this

Have you ever done anything to prevent someone from driving drunk
